NO DECISION ON OLYMPIC COIN

United States Treasurer Angela M. Buchanan today denied a wire service story which originated in Los Angeles indicating that the Treasury had made a decision to produce commemorative coins for the 1984 Olympic Games.

Miss Buchanan said that Treasury officials are studying the proposal made by representatives of the Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee but that no final decision had been made. Furthermore, Miss Buchanan stated that the proposal, if approved by the Reagan Administration, would have to be voted on by the Congress.
